Re: Telemarketing calls to [Your phone number]: demand under 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)

You, or someone calling on your behalf, made telemarketing calls to my number, [Your phone number], on [Dates of the calls or texts]. This is my personal number, it has been on the National Do Not Call Registry since [On the Do Not Call Registry since], and I did not invite these calls or give you permission to make them.

I believe these calls violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(c) and 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(c)(2). Section 227(c)(5) lets a person who receives more than one such call within 12 months sue for up to $500 per violation, and a court may increase that up to three times for a willful or knowing violation.

Within 30 days of receiving this letter, please:

1. Stop calling this number, and put it on your internal do-not-call list.
2. Keep your records of these calls, any consent you rely on, where you got my number, and the names of any vendors that called for you.
3. Write to me about resolving this claim.

If we can't resolve this, I may pursue my civil remedies, including a claim in small claims court. Until then, I reserve all of my civil remedies.

Sincerely,
